Holiday Fantasy

School and the football season are well under way and with those events in mind, we realize that St. John's Christmas Bazaar cannot be far behind. We know many of you have been working diligently on projects for the bazaar and we thank you. Now, we want you to know who will be managing this "Holiday Fantasy" and who you can contact if you have questions, need help, or want to let us know of items you have for the bazaar, supplies you would like to contribute, or any other donation.

We are all excited about the raffle items this year. We have a 19 piece ceramic nativity set, handcrafted by Priscilla Kulback, as first prize with a junior first prize of a "soft" nativity set, made by Diane Porter. Second prizes are a "basket of cheer" and a very large stuffed animal, donated by Marian Kirchoff. Raffle tickets are available now and will be on sale following the Masses beginning October 14.

Following is a listing of the ladies managing the "shops" along our bazaar midway. You may want to be in touch with them personally to offer your assistance.

Potpourri - Gloria Williams
Deck the Halls - Denise Sprague
Sweet Shop - Evelyn Rachoza & Helen Gondek
What Not - Lillian Montgomery
Emporium - Marge Walters
Stuff 'n Things - Pat Martel
Creative Crafts - Margaret Budinger & Betty Vargo
Raffle - Mary Wheeler & Myra Walters
Religious Articles - Margaret Ceo & Mel Kerner
Publicity - Stella Swope

The chairmen for this 1979 extravaganza are Dolores Ossenheimer (482-7517) and Joanne Hume (483-2382). They are looking forward to hearing from each and every one of you.

Finally, mark your calendar to attend the Holiday Fantasy on Saturday and Sunday, November 10 and 11.

Here I Am Lord, Send Me

Catechesis or growth in faith can take place only when all of us are involved doing our part to develop the faith of the community.

Parents are recognized as the first and foremost educators of their children. To be able to carry out the role, parents realize they need the help and support of the parish community, a community which creates an environment of faith, helps them grow in faith, and compliments their particular skill by providing catechists who help them and their children reflect on and understand God's message.

Catechists who share their particular gifts by helping people develop their faith have been led to this point by others. Family and parish have given them the opportunities to learn more and reflect more on their faith and its meaning in their lives, and have contributed to making them faith-filled people, willing to volunteer their time and talents for the good of others. We are proud of and privileged to announce this year's catechists and aides:

First Eucharist Meeting

The second meeting for the parents and children who will be receiving their First Communion this year will be held this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The second graders will not have to attend the regular classes on Tuesday or Wednesday afternoons.

Parish Nuptials

Mr. & Mrs. Loy E. Russom

On Friday evening, September 28, 1979, Loy E. Russom of Ypsilanti and Carol A. Bush of Ann Arbor were united in the Sacrament of Marriage before Fr. Doepker in our church.

The groom is the son of Loy L. and Frankie M. (Copeland) Russom of Pinckney; the bride is the daughter of George and Donna (Kramer) Floury of this parish and the late James N. Bush.

Acting as the principal witnesses for the ceremony were Terry Russom, brother of the groom and Joyce Bush, sister of the bride. Lector for the Mass was Kim Alexander, a friend of the bride. Musical accompaniment was provided by Melvin Light, organist, and Shelley Casey, guitarist and soloist.

Mr. & Mrs. David Ostrowski

On Saturday, September 29, 1979, David J. Ostrowski and Karen L. O'Daniel were united in the Covenant of Marriage during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Fr. Doepker.

David is the son of John and Elizabeth (Burr) Ostrowski of Taylor, Michigan. Karen is the daughter of William B. O'Daniel of Belgium and the late Geraldine (Tinley) O'Daniel.

David Breen and Bonnie Grawburg were the main witnesses for the ceremony. Music was provided by Melvin Light, organist, and Ruth Lorenz, soloist.

May those who have been joined by the love of Christ grow forever in that love.

In the Peace of Christ

Death came to Bertha M. Jauch, 540 Sunnyside Dr., Flushing, Michigan on September 27, 1979, at the age of 87. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at our church on September 29, by Father Schoettle.

Mrs. Jauch is survived by her husband, Carl of Albion, one son Paul F. Jauch of Tucson, Arizona, one daughter, Mrs. E. J. (Jane) Rynearson of Albion, one sister, Mrs. Gertrude Pryor of Greenbush, Michigan, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

May Bertha live forever in the peace of Christ.

National Rosary Sunday

Sunday, October 14 is National Rosary Sunday. A Diocesan Rosary Celebration will be held in Owosso at St. Paul's Church, 714 W. Main Street, Owosso, beginning at 3:00 p.m., Bishop Povish officiating. Afternoon will include Rosary, Bishop's Message and International Marian Songs by Ethnic Groups from Diocese. Refreshments will also be served. Please join us.

A Reminder

Many times the ushers have to approach as many as 10 or more people/families on a Saturday night or Sunday morning to ask if they would be willing to carry the Eucharistic gifts to the altar. It would certainly be of great help if you indicated to the ushers as you came into church that you would like to carry the gifts. I am sure they will be very happy to have you ask.

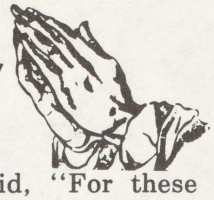
Coffee and Donuts

Help is needed in the area of coffee and donuts. Not enough parishioners signed the time and talent survey in this area and in order for the service to continue more help is being recruited. You still have time to fill out the time and talent survey or you can let Phyllis LaVoie, Dorothy Moorman or Sr. Paula know of your interest in this area of service.

Intercessory Prayer



And Jesus said, "For these I pray -- not for the world, but for these you have given me, for they are really yours. (Just as all that belongs to me is yours, so all that belongs to you is mine). It is in them that I have been glorified. I am in the world no more, but these are in the world as I come to you O Father most holy, protect them with your name which you have given me (that they may be one even as we are one.)"

My Lord and my God, when we look at thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast established, what is man that thou art mindful of him and the son of man that thou dost care for us. Jesus, in hope and faith we now turn to you with our needs.

We pray for our parish team, that they be one in unity with you. We pray for wisdom. Let your word and teaching come through them. Praise God.

We pray for our sick. Touch and heal, Lord. Take away the pain and suffering. Help us, Lord.

We pray for the elderly and shut-ins. Lord, you are the light of the world. Let your light shine upon them. Bring peace and joy. May they praise and glorify you, Lord.

We pray for our youth of the parish. May they turn away from the world and come to you, to know you and serve you.

We pray for those who can serve, but do not serve. Lord, only you can call them to serve and make use of their talents. We need workers, Lord, for there is much work to be done in our church.

Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to thy name give glory, for the sake of thy steadfast love and thy faithfulness. And may your love, joy and peace be upon all of us, now and forever. Praise the Lord

IV. Old Business

A. Council Workshop up-date/ temporarily tabled.

B. Zone up-date - The committee met in an attempt to evaluate the present program and to set some guidelines. They set a date of October 29th for for a kick-off Zone Leader meeting. Meanwhile all zone leaders to be phoned.

V. Questions from floor - none

VI. New Business

A. Address by Youth Minister - John Cameron brought Council up to date on what's been happening with the youth movement. All high school students are invited to first meeting of Catholic Youth on Sept. 20 at 7 p.m. John promised to make a personal home visit to all young adults and their families, however long it may take.

B. Navigation Program - Sr. Eileen explained in depth the system of evaluation and long-range planning that this process involves. It was agreed that both Council and Commissions would benefit from this program, and after lengthy discussion, a date was agreed on - October 2 - for the Council's special session. The Commissions will participate later.

VII. Other Announcements

A. There will no longer be Agenda meetings. Commission Chairmen will call in their information to R. Lemkuhl by the Monday preceding the Sunday that the Agenda is printed in Ypsi Catholic

B. Next Council meeting on October 11 at 8 p.m.

VIII. The meeting was adjourned at 10:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Penny Hines, Secretary

Baby-sitting

There will be a meeting for all those who signed Time and Talents in the area of baby-sitting. The meeting will be Monday night at 7:30 p.m. in the baby-sitting room. Anyone who did not sign the Time and Talent survey but would like to become involved in this area of service is welcome to come to the meeting.

Problem Pregnancy

Problem Pregnancy is in need of items that will help settle one of their clients into an apartment within St. John's Parish boundaries. They have need for a bed, pots and pans, dining room table, bedding and any other household furnishing that they can get. If you can be of service please let Sr. Paula know at the rectory.

Bike-Thon

The St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. John's Parish will sponsor our annual Bike-Thon on October 13th. We encourage family participation in this event if at all possible. The proceeds of our Bike-Thon will be used to help those in need in our community. There will be three trophies awarded to those participants who acquire the largest amount of funds through obtaining sponsors. Please mark this date on your calendars and plan to participate in this event. We ask that all bikers meet in the parking lot at 10:00 a.m. We are in need of sponsors as well ... so if you are approached, please become a sponsor!

Important Meeting for Seventh Grade Parents

A preview of the religious education program will be held for all parents of seventh grade students on Tuesday evening, October 16th, from 7:00 p.m.-8:15 p.m. in the Religious Education Center. The parish youth minister will explain the program of catechesis, activities, retreat and worship. The seventh grade catechists will be on hand to meet with parents. Parents are reminded that there will be no class for the students themselves this week.

Faith Inquiry For Teens

Faith Inquiry Classes are designed for those who are interested in becoming Catholic Christians, but are also useful for Catholics who wish to review the mysteries of faith. Teens who have been baptized but who have not received the Sacraments of Penance or Eucharist will also benefit from these opportunities to grow. The classes will serve as preparation to receive the sacraments. As well, teens who haven't received religious instruction in elementary or junior high programs in recent years are encouraged to attend.

Faith Inquiry for Teens will be offered for young adults in grades 9-12, beginning today, October 7th and ending on Sunday, November 10th. They will take place in the Religious Education Center and run from 10:00-11:00 a.m.
